Tim Rice, lyrics

Tim Rice has worked in music, theatre, and films since 1965 when he met Andrew Lloyd Webber, a fellow struggling songwriter. Rather than pursue Tim's ambitions to write rock or pop songs they turned their attention to Andrew's obsession – musical theatre. Their first collaboration was based on the life of Dr. Thomas Barnardo, the Victorian philanthropist, The Likes of Us. Their next three works together were much more successful – Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Jesus Christ Superstar and Evita.

Tim has since worked with other distinguished popular composers such as Elton John (The Lion King, Aida), Alan Menken (Aladdin, King David, Beauty and the Beast), Björn Ulvaeus and Benny Andersson (Chess), and Stuart Brayson (From Here to Eternity). He has also written with Freddie Mercury, Burt Bacharach and Rick Wakeman among others.

Tim founded his own cricket team in 1973, which has now played over 750 matches, and was president of MCC, founded in 1789, in 2002. He crops up here and there in all branches of the media, drawing on his extensive knowledge of the history of popular music.

As an EGOT, he is one of only 17 people in the world to have won an Emmy, Grammy, Oscar and Tony award, was knighted by HM Queen Elizabeth II in 1994, and is the proud owner of a boxer dog and two dozen chickens.

Andrew Lloyd Webber, music

Andrew Lloyd Webber has composed the scores of some of the world's most famous musicals. His shows have run continuously in London's West End for 50 years and ran for 43 uninterrupted years on Broadway.

When the original Sunset Boulevard joined School of Rock, CATS and The Phantom of the Opera, he equalled Rodgers & Hammerstein's record of four shows running simultaneously on Broadway. He is one of the select group of artists with EGOT status, having received Emmy, Grammy, Oscar and Tony Awards.

Lloyd Webber owns six London theatres, including the iconic London Palladium and Theatre Royal Drury Lane. Reopened in July 2021, the latter was completely restored and renovated at a cost of over £60 million. This was one of the biggest projects ever undertaken by a private theatre owner in recent times. His mantra is that every penny of profit made from his theatres is ploughed back into the buildings for their conservation and development.

Lloyd Webber is passionate about the importance of musical education and diversity in the arts. Andrew Lloyd Webber Foundation provides 30 performing arts scholarships every year for talented students with financial need, and supports a range of projects such as the Music In Secondary Schools Trust (MiSST).

In academic year September 2025-26, 14,885 children are being given free musical tuition and instruments as part of MiSST's Andrew Lloyd Webber Programme. The Foundation also commissions research into diversity in theatre.

Andrew Lloyd Webber has composed music for globally significant moments. Most recently, he was asked to compose "Make a Joyful Noise," the anthem for the Coronation of King Charles III.

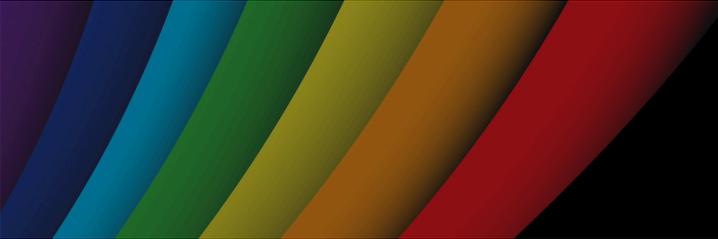

Andrew Lloyd Webber was knighted in 1992, created an honorary life peer in 1997, and made a Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter by King Charles III in 2024. He is the only person in the arts ever granted this personal honor by a monarch.

JOSEPH And The AMAZING TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT

A message from the Principal

On behalf of our entire Catholic Central High School community, congratulations to the outstanding cast, crew, and production team of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

You have all truly "closed your eyes, drew back the curtain," and revealed a world of incredible imagination. This production is a vibrant testament to your talent, dedication, and courage. From the playfulness, energy, and joy on stage to the countless unseen hours of rehearsals, music, choreography, lighting, and technical preparation, you have worked together to create something truly good and important. Your commitment to excellence shines in every note, every scene, and every costume. You have added to the vast legacy of musical theatre productions at Catholic Central.

Thank you for sharing your gifts so generously. By welcoming us into this beloved story, you have beautifully embodied our year one of faith theme to "open wide the doors," inviting our entire community to experience the power of creativity, collaboration, and faith in action. You have proven that when a community comes together with such heart and enthusiasm, much more than just "any dream will do"—you make the dream a spectacular reality!

Go, go, go Joseph! Break a leg—and enjoy every moment!

Mrs. Polec
Principal

Synopsis

"Sha la la, Joseph, you're doing fine! You and your dreamcoat, ahead of your time!" One of the most enduring shows of all time, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is a reimagining of the Biblical story of Joseph, his father Jacob, eleven brothers and the coat of many colors.

Told entirely through song with the help of a main character Narrator, the musical follows preferred son Joseph. After being sold into slavery by his brothers, he ingratiates himself with Egyptian noble Potiphar, but ends up in jail after refusing the amorous advances of Potiphar's wife. While imprisoned, Joseph discovers his ability to interpret dreams, and he soon finds himself in front of the mighty but troubled, Elvis-inspired, Pharaoh. Joseph's solution to Egypt's famine elevates him to Pharaoh's right-hand man and reunites him with his family.

The magical musical is full of catchy songs in a variety of styles, from a parody of French ballads ("Those Canaan Days"), to country-western ("One More Angel in Heaven") and calypso ("Benjamin Calypso"), along with the unforgettable classics "Any Dream Will Do" and "Close Every Door." Appropriate for all audiences and groups, Joseph is performed hundreds of times a year by schools across North America, the U.K. and around the world.

From the Directors Chair ...

Wow. Is it March already? ...but really: the months BLUE by faster than ever this year. In a year of ups and downs, one thing that has been consistent is that we are back in the Knights of Columbus Eggplant Theatre for another wonderful production. Are you RED-y? When we met at the end of last year, we were quickly in a-GREEN-ment that this year needed to be something fun and memorable. There was not much of a CRIMSON-lose-some fight – no one had to YELL “OW!” and from the planning stage, one show ROSE to the top of the mountain: Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. We knew it fondly as some members of our wonderful production team were in the first production of this show BLACK when the Eggplant Theatre first opened in the 1998-

1999 school year at CCH. I can't believe it, but those wonderful people have been here since the first PURPLE-ing (and they are just as youthful as ever!). PINK-ing back on the experiences and getting to bring a new generation of students into the tradition is quite the honour – LI-LAC the words to explain it fully.

Why Joseph? Well, we know that it's A ZURE hit! What else could it be – music by Andrew Lloyd Webber, lyrics by Tim Rice, and a FAWN-tastic cast, crew, and production team joined for the first time by our PEACH-y keen youth choirs from St. Pat's Fine Arts and St Paul elementary schools, you can CHOC(OLATE) this one up to a show that will be remembered GREY-tly. This musical has it all, brought to life by a wonderful ensemble of people (and let me tell you, ensemble shows are pretty entertaining, even if others would tell you otherwise – you see, people sometimes just see the world in such a drab palette and have absolutely no taste)! The story of Joseph pulls us into the Book of Genesis and tells us the story of the GOLDen child, Joseph who can interpret dreams, much to the chagrin of his (O)LIVE-id brothers. As far as sibling rivalries go, this one takes Joseph all the way to Egypt and into some CREAM-inal misunderstandings. Instead of staying put, he finds himself on the MAUVE and uses his gifts to try to find a SILVER lining for Pharaoh. The show culminates in a chance encounter with the brothers who VIOLET-ed his trust and puts Joseph to the ultimate test. Can Joseph RUSSET up the courage to do what is right instead of what is easy? Revenge, or cLEMONcy?

Get ready for a colourful experience back in the Eggplant, everyone! Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat promises to bring an amazing story to life once again at CCH. At its core is another heartfelt show about one's family and finding your place in the world. As Tim Rice said in the foreword of our script: “[...] the show is at its freshest and funniest when performed by those for whom it was written – children.” This year's show is framed around this idea, using the imagination of children telling the story of Joseph and his Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat to bring our production to life. This show has heart, brains, BROWN, and a few jokes here and there that should be WHITE up your alley.

ORANGE you glad you made it to the end of this, or maybe the colour puns didn't win you OCHRE? Hopefully they didn't leave a SCAR(LET) or RUB(Y) you the wrong way, because you should leave this show feeling and dreaming big. As the Narrator says: “If you think it, want it, dream it, then it's real. You are what you feel.” Hopefully as the show begins, you can dream about the magic you are going to see; as the show ends, we hope that you feel great, because you are what you feel. Enjoy the show!

Liam Doherty - Joseph

Liam Edward Martin Doherty (grade 12) is very excited to be playing the role of Joseph in this year's production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (2026). This will be his third and final show here with the lovely people of Catholic Central High's theatre program, and hopes that this will turn out to be a show everyone can enjoy. He has previously appeared in Wizard of Oz as Tin Man (2024), and Mamma Mia! as Harry Bright (2025). He would like to thank: his directors for helping him with this show and general day-to-day life, his parents for letting him stay up late, and the cast and crew for being one of the best parts of his day - for every time he is with them, there is nowhere else he would rather be. He would like to wish all the younger students who still have shows left at CCH, good luck, and to take in everything from this year. Break a leg!

Kaitlyn Sawa - Narrator

Katy is excited to be a part of this year's musical of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat in the role of the Narrator for her final performance with CCH. She was involved in CCH's Mamma Mia! - Rosie (2025), and The Wizard of Oz - Scarecrow (2024), as well as various shows at St. Francis Junior High. She has come a long way to be where she is today. Working with the children's choir was an experience she was very excited about and one she was looking forward to since the beginning. Upon meeting new and familiar faces, she is proud to call her castmates family. She would like to thank her friends and family for always supporting her, as well as her cast and crew mates for making this experience the best it can be!

Colin Headley - Jacob/Servant/Guard

Colin Headley is very excited to be a part of this year's Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat as Jacob, the father of Joseph. His last production was when he was in grade seven in Richmond B.C. He would like to thank his family, friends and teachers that encouraged him to join and perform in the play. He has mostly come out of his shell and always had a good time at each rehearsal. Honestly, not a lot of people thought that he could perform in a play, but ever since auditions, he had hope and confidence that he could do this, that he could act out and play a good part and show people that he is not afraid anymore.

Ernesto Fuentes - Potiphar/Vendor/Guard

Ernesto Fuentes is delighted to be a part of this year's production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat in the role of Potiphar as his first CCH show. Other production credits include St. Francis's Newsies Jr. (2025), Aladdin Jr. (2024), and High School Musical! On Stage (2023). He looks forward to being a part of this show and can't wait to perform in more shows to come. Ernie would like to thank his family, friends, cast, and crew for being supportive, but, most importantly, he would like to thank his directors and teachers for allowing him to be a part of this year's show. He hopes all his castmates succeed during the show and that everyone enjoys the show! Break a leg everybody!

Vanesa Lozinska - Potiphar's Wife/Vendor/Egyptian Handmaid

Vanesa is a grade 11 student who is very grateful for the opportunity to be a part of her second CCH production! In previous years, Vanesa was in the ensemble for Mamma Mia! (2025) and the Genie in Aladdin Jr. (2024). Outside of the world of theatre, Vanesa is a devoted hockey manager and an avid artist who loves to bring creativity to boring places. She would like to thank: her directors for all the work they have put in, fellow actors for showing such community and love in stressful rehearsals, and most importantly, her parents, for paying the theatre fee.

Elias Fuentes - Pharaoh/Vendor/Ishmaelite/Servant/Guard

Elias Fuentes is excited to be a part of this year's musical of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat as the role of Pharaoh for his first performance as a grade ten student with CCH. He has been involved in previous performances at St. Francis Junior High including: Newsies Jr. - Jack Kelly (2025), Aladdin Jr. - Omar (2024), and High School Musical! On Stage (2023). Influenced to join by his older siblings, being a part of a CCH production has been an experience he has looked forward to since he was a kid. He is blessed to have created memories with old and new friends throughout this process. Elias would like to thank his friends and family for always supporting him, as well as his cast and crew mates for the memorable experiences throughout the show!

Molly McMorrow - Butler/Ishmaelite

Molly is a grade 12 student who has loved theater since elementary. Previous production credits include Newsies (2025 - Phoenix Arts Co.), The Wizard of Oz - Toto (2023 - CCH), and High School Musical! On Stage - Mrs. Darbus (2023 - St. Francis). She would like to thank those who have contributed to Lethbridge's local theater scene, whether as a patron or a participant, via school or a company. Discovering a passion at a young age (like she did) is an invaluable experience, and it was only possible due to the hard work this community has put into providing accessible, quality theatrical experiences. Alongside the talented company of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat (2026), she hopes to pay this forward and inspire other young people in the same way she was inspired.

Marie Cormier - Baker/Ishmaelite/Egyptian Handmaid

Marie is a 12th-grade student performing in her third and final production at CCH. She appears in multiple roles, including the Baker, Ishmaelite, and Egyptian Handmaid. She has greatly enjoyed being part of this year's musical and contributing her vocal range to the production. She is thrilled to bring this production to life and hopes the audience enjoys the performance.

Alaina Doherty - Reuben

Alaina Doherty (grade 11) is so excited to be in this year's CCH production of Joseph And The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat! She has previously appeared in Mamma Mia! (2025), Aladdin Jr. (2024), High School Musical! On Stage (2023), Beauty and the Beast Jr. (2022), and Frozen Jr. (2019). There are countless people who she would like to thank this year but the top people are her mom, her Auntie Brittany, and her friends. These individuals have made this process much easier for her, and all of them made her feel especially loved while she felt crazy. She also hopes all her peers break a leg!

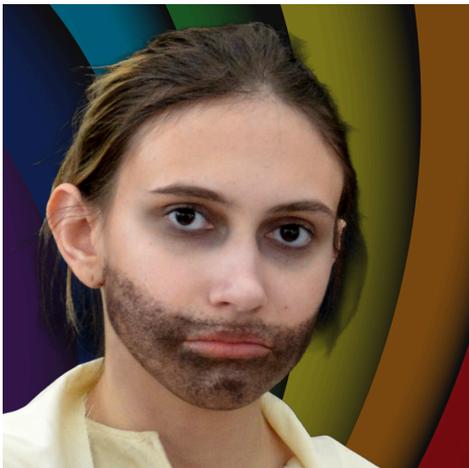

Grace Sedan - Simeon

Grace Sedan is excited to play Simeon in this year's performance of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (2026). She previously appeared in Mamma Mia! - young man (2025). She has been putting a lot of effort into making this program a success, and she is grateful to have the support of the directors, staff, and cast. She also wants to express her gratitude to her friends and family for their encouragement and support. Grace wishes everyone involved in this performance great success. Yeehaw!

Trip Little Bear - Levi

Trip is very excited to return for his third and final show before he graduates. He has been involved in Mamma Mia! - Eddie (2025), and The Wizard of Oz - floor crew (2024). These experiences were incredible and his enjoyment of it is undeniable. Trip is most thankful for his parents for always pushing him to be the best man he can be both on and off stage. He would also like to give thanks to: the cast for being a lot like a second family, Mr. Dalton for his amazing support, Mrs. Richards for her amazing support and always letting him annoy the heck out of her whenever he can, Mrs. Ens for always teaching him the music, Mrs. Gerry for always teaching him the choreography, and Mr. Schmidt and Mrs. Ross for their amazing support.

Sophia Alger - Naphtali

Sophia Alger (grade 12) is elated to be returning to the stage for Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, her second and (sadly) last CCH production. She would like to thank all her friends and family over the years who have encouraged and supported her to take part in theatre. Sophia extends a special gratitude to all the incredible teachers and staff involved in the production who have made the Eggplant such a welcoming space for all students, including herself. She hopes the audience has as much joy watching the musical as she and her fellow cast members have had being part of it!

Alyssa Latag - Issachar

Alyssa Latag is so excited to be acting as Issachar in CCH's production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. This is her first year of being a part of Catholic Central's Fine Arts program. However, she was involved in the musicals at St. Francis Junior High, including Newsies Jr. - Medda Larkin (2025), Aladdin Jr. - Isir (2024), and High School Musical! On Stage - skater boy (2023). Alyssa is extremely grateful for all these opportunities and would like to thank her parents, friends, and family for supporting her throughout this journey. Alyssa hopes that everybody will enjoy the show and that they will find it as entertaining and fun as she does. She wishes all her castmates to break a leg on stage and the crew to do amazing as they help during the shows!

Tessa Tyson - Asher

Tessa Tyson is quite pleased to be part of the cast for CCH's production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Fairly new to the world of musical theater, this 11th grader's breakout role was "ensemble" in CCH's Mamma Mia! (2025). Tessa sends well wishes to the cast and crew along with a sincere thank you to the production staff for all of the time they have put into making this show a reality along with dealing with high schoolers.

Cecille Lee - Dan

Cecille is very excited to be a part of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat in her grade eleven year! She has been a part of Mamma Mia! (2025), Aladdin Jr. (2024), High School Musical! On Stage (2023), Beauty and the Beast Jr. (2022) and Frozen Jr. (2020). Cecille would like to thank Mr. Dalton for helping her to become a better actress. She would also like to thank Mrs. Ens, and Mrs. Richards for teaching her how to use her voice and how to read her music properly She would also like to thank all of her family, and friends for supporting her, and standing with her even when she's cranky. She once again is super excited to be a part of this performance! She wishes everyone a DAN...dy show!

Viktorija Reron - Zebulun

Viktorija Reron is very excited to be a part of this year's production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, appearing as one of the twelve brothers (Zebulun) and a prisoner. This is her first year being involved with CCH Fine Arts productions as a grade ten student. Previously, she has performed with Saint Francis Junior High Fine Arts in Newsies Jr. - Hazel (2025), Aladdin Jr. - Genie (2024), and High School Musical! On Stage - ensemble (2023). She would like to thank her family, friends, teachers, and the cast and crew for all their support and hard work. Viktorija wishes everyone involved a "break a leg" and hopes the audience enjoys the show!

Dallas Engen - Gad

Thrilled to be present in their first ever musical, Dallas Engen, A.K.A the illustrious Gad, can't wait to show off their efforts from the last few months! Dallas's previous theatre credits include: The Wizard of Oz - prop manager (2024), Sandy Scarecrow's Halloween (2024), Murder Is Fun! (2023), Anne-Arky! (2023), and The Christmas Express (2019). An avid theatre kid, Dallas has been eager to participate in drama classes and opportunities to showcase their acting prowess, and is honoured to present this prayerful play in the year of their graduation. sniff. They will surely miss this wonderful group of people in the years to come. On that note, they would love to thank their teachers, family, friends, and wonderful partner for supporting and sticking by them through this 'technicolour rollercoaster', as well as you, dear reader, for attending this blood-sweat-and-tears-packed performance. Sit back, grab your bread and wine, and enjoy the show!

Isabel Crawford - Benjamin

Isabel Crawford (grade 11) is thrilled to participate in this year's production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. She previously appeared in CCH's production of Mamma Mia! (2025), and St. Francis' production of Aladdin Jr. (2024) as Rajah. She would like to thank her family for their support (and tolerance of her "hangriness" after long nights of rehearsal) and her castmates for the dedication and passion they put towards this experience to make it truly a great one.

Precious Oketola - Judah

Precious is a Grade 10 student who is excited to be part of this production. Although this is his first show, Precious has experience playing musical instruments which helped spark his interest in joining the show. Being part of the cast has been a new and rewarding experience that has encouraged creativity and collaboration. Precious would like to thank his parents for their continued support and encouragement. He would also like to thank his fellow cast members, crew, and the production team for making the experience enjoyable and memorable. Special thanks go to Mrs. Richards and the grade twelves for encouraging him to audition.

Anne Wobschall - Jacob's Wife, Leah/Egyptian Handmaid

Anne Wobschall is excited to be in this year's production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat in the roles of Leah (Jacob's first wife), Prisoner, and one of Pharaoh's handmaids. This is Anne's third year participating in the Catholic Central High School musical. She previously performed in Mamma Mia! - young woman (2025), and in The Wizard of Oz - apple tree, jitterbug, emerald city polisher, and poppy (2024). She would like to thank everyone who has given her support over these past three years, she really couldn't have done any of it without their support. She is really going to miss everyone and has cherished every moment of her time spent in these productions.

Joy Elendemhinlin - Jacob's Wife, Zilpah/ Egyptian Handmaid

Joy Elendemhinlin (grade 11) is thrilled to play Zilpah in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. She worked as a spotlight operator in Mamma Mia! (2025). She would like to thank her friends for holding her at gunpoint to audition for the play, as well as the incredible cast and crew members for each playing their part in making this production what it is.

Keira Cook - Jacob's Wife, Bilhah/Egyptian Handmaid

Keira Cook (grade 10) is thrilled to be involved in her first production at CCH, and knows that this will definitely not be her last! She is very thankful for everyone involved (the directors, cast, and backstage crew) that make these shows come together beautifully. She is so excited to see everything come together seamlessly and hopes that they have put on a memorable show for anyone who watches.

Rhyker MacWilliam - Guard/Servant

Rhyker is excited to be a part of this year's show Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (2026) in the role of a servant/guard. This is Rhyker's first show ever and he is excited to see how it turns out. He hopes that it is successful and wishes all of his castmates good luck with the performance. He would like to thank his family, friends, Tom Brady, and Mr. Dalton himself for he would not have done it without any of them. Oomba dumba dumba dum!

Venice Garcia - Egyptian Handmaid

Venice Garcia is a grade ten student who is thrilled to be in her first production as one of the handmaids. Her favorite part of this process has been the songs and performances, as she has made a lot of memories. She would like to thank all of her friends who helped her to fully adjust to the atmosphere within the theater as they helped her learn. She would also like to thank Mr. Dalton, who pushed her out of her comfort zone, as she never expected to have a chance to experience performing. She would also like to thank everyone that helped her in every way possible. She wishes that everyone will be healthy and safe during the performances, and that the production will be successful for all who are involved. Good luck!

Mariia Mischenko - Egyptian Handmaid

Mariia Mischenko (grade ten) is proud to be a part of the cast of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (2026). This is her first year in the program and is amazed at how exciting and new it all feels! This year has been interesting and unusual thanks to her directors and teachers. She would like to express her gratitude to her loved ones, her friends who have become a support system and like a family to her. She is excited for you to see how vibrant this show looks and how all of the songs come together.

Grace Mucha - Egyptian Handmaid

Grace Mucha (grade twelve) is ecstatic to be able to participate in this year's Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat as Mrs. Potiphar's and the Pharaoh's handmaids. Her previous production credits include Mamma Mia! - spotlight technician (2025), The Wizard of Oz - spotlight technician (2024), High School Musical! On Stage (2023), Beauty and the Beast Jr. (2022), and Frozen Jr. (2020). She would like to thank her friends, family, cast and crew members for all the support and hard work during this amazing opportunity. Grace would like to give a special thanks to her friends for strongly persuading her to audition and for also auditioning with her.

Kruz Wall - Camel/Sheep

Kruz Wall is a grade 10 student and is beyond excited to continue his theatre experiences at Catholic Central. This is his fourth show, past productions at Father Leonard Van Tighem School include The Little Mermaid (2023), Madagascar (2024) and Wonka Jr. (2025). Kruz is a neurodiverse student who has found his passion and his people in the drama productions. He would proudly like to thank Mr. Dalton and Mrs. Ens for all of their support and seeing him as a theater kid, his castmates for their kindness and friendship, and his family who always supports his dreams.

Children's Chorus

We are so blessed to have TWO casts of young students from our district taking part in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Coming from St. Patrick Fine Arts Elementary and St. Paul School, these energetic young people have given of their time and talents since November. Both casts have been present throughout the rehearsal process learning their vocal parts, as well as group choreography. We hope that this experience will be one of many for each of them as they continue to explore opportunities to use their gifts in performance.
